TWO BROCKTON MEN INDICTED ON ASSAULT CHARGES IN ROBBERY

BROCKTON – Two Brockton men have been indicted on assault charges in the robbery of an acquaintance, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today.

Edwin Rodriguez (DOB: 8/10/93) and Corey Wilson (DOB: 1/11/90), were each indicted on one count of Armed Robbery, Assault and Battery with a Deadly Weapon and Assault and Battery.

On April 25, 2015, Brockton Police responded to 23 Poole Street for a report of a male victim with a laceration to his right hand. The victim had been riding in a car with Rodriguez and Wilson. The victim told police that when they arrived on Poole Street, Wilson and Rodriguez began punching him in the head and Wilson then pulled out a large hunting knife and threatened to kill him. The victim then allegedly grabbed the blade, causing the cut to his hand. Rodriguez allegedly held the victim in a headlock while Wilson continued to punch the victim and then both Rodriguez and Wilson proceeded to rob him of $330 in cash, an ATM card, 18 grams of marijuana and a blue cell phone.

Rodriguez and Wilson will be arraigned in Brockton Superior Court at a later date.

Brockton Police investigated the case, which is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Canan Yesilcimen.
